The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, having been tranſmitted by ——— Place, Eſq; Recorder of York, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us, with the greateſt Sincerity, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe your Dominions; and on that great Advantage to Trade and Power, which your Arms and Prudence have obtained for theſe Nations, by the Reduction of Cape Breton. Your Majeſty's unwearied and continual Endeavours, both at Home and Abroad, for the Good of your Subjects, call upon us, and demand the higheſt Expreſſions of Gratitude and Loyalty which Words can ſupply us with, and which our Actions ſhall, when ever Time makes it neceſſary, in every Circumſtance, verify.

The Rebellion now begun in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, tho' it ſtrikes us with Horror, yet animates us with Zeal and Courage; and forgetful of all little Party Diſtinctions and private Animoſities, we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, heartily unite in Support of our Government and Conſtitution; without the Support whereof in Church and State, the Enjoyment of Life or Fortune, under Arbitrary Power and Popiſh Tyranny, will be precarious, and by being precarious, moſt neceſſarily be of little, if of any, Value.

The Records of former Ages, and our own Memories in this preſent, muſt effectually convince every of our Fellow Subjects, (not deſigning his own and Country's Deſtruction) that thoſe Trains of Miſeries, thoſe Scenes of Blood and Confuſion, which Popery more than once introduced into theſe Nations, muſt neceſſarily (if it be conſiſtent with its own Principles) be repeated, and again opened, with equal, if not greater, Horror and Cruelty. How terrible muſt even the Thought of that Change be, that from a long, quiet and perfect Enjoyment of all that ever was dear to us, that, at once ſhould be raviſhed from us, which muſt neceſſarily be, ſhould your Majeſty's Subjects ignorantly or wickedly ſit ſtill, and ſee that ſtruck at, which can only perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings to us, and prevent thoſe impending Miſeries, your own Sacred Perſon and Royal Family. For the Continuance and Preſervation whereof in theſe Kingdoms, nothing ſhall be left undone, (unattempted at leaſt) in the Power of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of and in the City of York aforeſaid, the Twenty third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Tho. Fonnerau, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your ancient and ever faithful Borough of Sudbury, embrace with Joy our Privilege of approaching your Royal Preſence, to congratulate you and ourſelves on your ſafe and much deſired Return to theſe your Dominions; which, although flouriſhing by your Influence Abroad, are vitally cheriſhed by your more immediate Protection.

The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the Reduction of Cape Breton, gives us a very ſenſible and ſubſtantial Pleaſure, as it opens to all your Trading Subjects a moſt agreeable Proſpect of ſeeing their Commerce to North America, by ſo prudent a Direction of the Naval, which is the natural Strength of this Kingdom, at once reſtored, vindicated and enlarged.

The conſtant Care of your Majeſty in the Defence of the Civil Rights and Liberties of all your Subjects, moſt juſtly challenges a Return of Allegiance and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: And the more we reflect on your paternal Goodneſs to us, ſo long, ſo happily, and uninterruptedly experienced, we find ourſelves more obliged to acknowledge your Majeſty's Tenderneſs over us, and Indulgence to us.

Suffer us then, Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty, that if a Day of Danger approaches, we will not fail in our Duty to your Majeſty, nor ſhrink in the Performance of it. We reſolve to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to exert unanimouſly our collected Strength to ſupport your Majeſty's juſt and legal Title to, and Poſſeſſion of, theſe your Hereditary Dominions, againſt all Pretenders and Invaders. The Love of Liberty has taught us to prefer Death to Slavery; and the Proteſtant Religion, to chuſe Extremities before Perjury.

And being fully aſſured that our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, all that we eſteem valuable in Life, can only be ſecured to us, and tranſmitted to our Poſterity by your Majeſty and your Royal Proteſtant Iſſue, we will ſhew all the Diſturbers of our Happineſs, that every Attempt they ſhall make to deprive us of it, ſhall have no other Effect with us, than giving us ſo many Occaſions of ſhewing our Loyalty and Zeal to your moſt gracious Majeſty.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace, and others of the County of Southampton, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace, and others of the County of Southampton, met and aſſembled together at the City of Wincheſter, this 19th Day of September 1745, in order to put the Laws in Execution againſt Papiſts and Non-jurors, purſuant to your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, and the Orders of your Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and others of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſeaſonable and moſt happy Return to your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions.

Permit us, Dread Sir, at the ſame Time to ſhew our utmoſt Deteſtation of the unnatural Rebellion formed againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, and to aſſure your Majeſty we will, at the Expence of every Thing that is valuable, defend your Majeſty's juſt and legal Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever; beſeeching Almighty God, who hath ſo often preſerved us from Popery and Arbitrary Power, ſtill to continue and protect our happy Conſtitution, and that all Attempts againſt your Majeſt's Royal Perſon and Government, may end in the firmer Eſtabliſhment of your Throne on yourſelf and lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Biſhop, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, Lord Lieutenant of the County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant of the County, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, at a General Meeting at Huntingdon, the 24th of September 1745.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant of the County, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Huntingdon, do moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe Kingdoms, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton; and we beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's paternal Care to ſecure to your Subjects an extenſive Trade, and the full Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

Theſe Bleſſings, however great in themſelves, never appear more valuable, than at a Time when we are threatened with the immediate Loſs of them: And it is with the greateſt Abhorrence we now ſee your Majeſty's Rights invaded, and every Thing that is dear to us endangered, from an unnatural Rebellion among your own Subjects, encouraged and ſupported by the common Diſturbers of Europe, and the avowed Patrons of Popery and arbitrary Power.

We therefore do, in this ſolemn Manner, moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty of our Duty, Fidelity and Affection; and that, as faithful Subjects, we will do our utmoſt to preſerve the Peace of our Country, and, as Engliſhmen and Proteſtants, will exert ourſelves in Defence of your Majeſty, and your Royal Family, and do every Thing that becomes an honeſt, grateful, free People, to eſtabliſh your Majeſty's Throne, and thereby ſecure to ourſelves, and our Poſterity, the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Charles Monſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly deſire, among the general Acclamations of your People, to expreſs our Joy on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to theſe Realms.

The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in ſubduing to your Power the Iſland of Cape Breton, muſt greatly elate every well-wiſher to your Majeſty's Honour and Glory. Nor can we have a more convincing Proof of the Importance of this Acquiſition, than your Majeſty's taking ſuch Meaſures as you think moſt conducive to the perpetual annexing of it to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

Let us not be ſilent in our Congratulations, that by your Majeſty's Suffrage and Influence, our Ally hath been elected the Emperor; by which Means we may hope the Germanick Body may be more cloſely united to preſerve the Ballance of Power, againſt the treacherous Attempts and ambitious Views of the Houſe of Bourbon.

The Invaſion of theſe Kingdoms, by the Pretender to your Crown and Dignity, demands the utmoſt Attention of every good Subject; But from hence your Majeſty will more clearly diſtinguiſh your faithful Subjects, who have the true Intereſt of their Country, and the Proteſtant Religion, at Heart, from thoſe who only ſhew'd Obedience till Rebellion gave them an Opportunity of teſtifying their true Sentiments. Theſe Wars Abroad, and inteſtine Broils at Home, will give Glory to your Majeſty to late Poſterity, as they are Difficulties which require a Genius like your Majeſty's to ſurmount.

No Endeavours ſhall be wanting in us to detect all ſuſpicious and diſaffected Perſons, of what Religion or Perſuaſion ſoever; and to take every other Method that may be moſt proper to ſecure to your Majeſty, and your Royal Progeny, the peaceable Poſſeſſion of the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Lincoln aforeſaid, the 25th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Field Marſhal Wade, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and —— Henley, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of your Majeſty's ancient City of Bath, beg Leave, in the moſt humble and ſincere Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions, and to expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of your Majeſty's Concern for the Liberties of Europe, in purſuing, with ſuch Pains, Wiſdom, and Steadineſs, that great Point, the Election of an Emperor; an Event of the utmoſt Importance, and which we have at Length ſeen ſo happily accompliſhed. We beg Leave likewiſe to expreſs our Joy on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in North America, in the Acquiſition of Cape Breton; a Place of the utmoſt Conſequence to the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain, and the Loſs of which muſt be conſider'd as a Wound given to France in its very Vitals. While your Majeſty is thus invariably purſuing the Intereſts of your People, we cannot but with equal Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence reflect upon the unnatural Rebellion now raiſed and carried on in your Majeſty's Dominions; which outragious and audacious Attempt, we are perſuaded, can end in nothing but the Deſtruction of thoſe who are Partakers in it: And in evincing to the World how abſolutely and ſecurely your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts and Affections of your People in general, the Patriot, the Man of Property, and Religion, influenced by the ſtrongeſt Motives, Duty and Intereſt, muſt join with the utmoſt Ardour, upon all Occaſions, to ſupport your Majeſty's Perſon and the preſent Eſtabliſhment: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that your dutiful and loyal Subjects, we the Citizens of this ancient City, will on any Emergency appear among the Firſt, to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in ſo glorious an Enterprize.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-third Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Provincial Synod of Drumfries, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the moſt Hon. the Marquis of Tweeddale, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Provincial Synod of Drumfries.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Synod of Drumfries, aſſembled upon Occaſion of the preſent State of Affairs, beg Leave, with ſincere and grateful Hearts, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and ſeaſonable Arrival to theſe your Dominions, the Succeſs of your Arms in taking Cape Breton, and the happy Effects of your Councils in the Election of a King of the Romans.

We are ſorry, that the Joy we have from theſe Events ſhould be ſo much allay'd by the preſent wicked and unnatural Rebellion of ſome of our Countrymen, headed by the Son of a Popiſh Pretender, whoſe avowed Deſign is to deprive your Majeſty of your Crown, and thereby deprive us of our valuable Rights and Privileges, and make our Country a Scene of Blood. We cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Abhorrence we have of that wicked Attempt, nor the warm Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which fill our Hearts on this Occaſion.

As the Miniſters of this Church have always diſtinguiſhed themſelves by a firm Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion happily eſtabliſhed in your Royal Family, (which, under God, is the great Bulwark of all our Privileges, both ſacred and civil;) ſo we ſhould be moſt unworthy of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, and of the ſacred Character we bear, if on this Occaſion we did not vigorouſly exert ourſelves to awaken and cheriſh in the Minds of the People under our Care, a becoming Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Family and Service, notwithſtanding of any Arts uſed to the contrary, to raiſe in them a juſt Indignation at the audacious and deſperate Attempts of theſe Rebels, equally Enemies to your Majeſty's Government, and the Happineſs of the Nation. And 'tis with great Pleaſure we can aſſure your Majeſty of the warm and hearty Zeal of the People in our Pariſhes, for the Religion and Liberty berty of their Country, and the Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and of their ready Diſpoſition to appear in Arms in Defence of theſe Intereſts.

That our gracious God, who gives Deliverance to Kings, and ſaves his Anointed, may clothe your Enemies with Shame, and make the Crown long flouriſh on your Head; and that your Majeſty may reign in Peace and Quiet over a free, loyal and united People; and that it may be the Happineſs of theſe Lands to have a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes of your Royal Family, to lateſt Poſterity, is and ſhall be the earneſt Prayer of,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters of the Provincial Synod of Drumfries.

Drumfries, Sept. 24, 1745.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by William Forreſter, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Freemen of the City and County of the City of Coventry, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſehold, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Freemen of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to expreſs our Joy upon your happy Return to your loyal Subjects, the important Conqueſt of of Cape Breton, and the Succeſs of your Endeavours in the Election of an Emperor.

We beg Leave to declare our Abhorrence of French Slavery, and all Attempts in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

We feel and enjoy the happy Effects of your Majeſty's mild Government, and know too well the Value of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, not to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Royal Family, and our own Happineſs, which we eſteem inſeparable.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magiſtrates and Citizens of the City of Litchfield, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Gower, their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magiſtrates and Citizens of your Majeſty's ancient City of Litchfield.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do, with unſpeakable Joy, congratulate your Majeſty's happy and ſeaſonable Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Hazards and Labours you have ſuſtained for the Good of Europe.

We humbly beg Leave to teſtify our hearty Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the inſolent and daring Rebellion now ſet on Foot in theſe Kingdoms in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, inſtigated and ſupported by France and her Emiſſaries, the Diſturbers of your Majeſty's lawful Title to theſe Realms, and the Enemies to our true Religion and Government.

We do further moſt humbly intreat your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our Aſſurances, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, hazard all that is dear to us, in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, and in Support of our eſtabliſhed Religion, and happy Conſtitution.

We aſſure your Majeſty, we will be ever watchful to diſcover, and reſolute to oppoſe, the Attempts of your Majeſty's Enemies both at Home and Abroad; and it ſhall be the Study of our Lives, within our humble Sphere, to make your Crown, with all its Weight of Cares, as eaſy as it is glorious.

That your Majeſty may long live to reign over us, the Darling of a happy People, a Friend to Europe, and the Scourge of Tyranny and arbitrary Power, is the ſincere and united Wiſh of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, this 24th Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Addreſs Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds in the County of Suffolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of your Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity of teſtifying our unfeigned Joy and Gratitude, for your Majeſty's ſpeedy and happy Return into theſe your Royal Dominions, to animate and protect your dutiful Subjects, who, in this Time of Danger and Alarm, could not but be extreamly anxious for the Safety and Preſervation of your Majeſty, and the Britiſh Conſtitution.

The outragious Inſolence with which the Rights of your Majeſty, and that Conſtitution, are now invaded, in Favour of an abjur'd Pretender, by the Dregs of a reſtleſs, motley Faction, Outlaws and abandoned Men, irreconcileable to one another in every other Principle and View but that of overturning our happy Eſtabliſhment, and too inconſiderable to dare to attempt that without a Proſpect of Foreign Aſſiſtance, from the faithleſs and implacable Enemy of theſe your Majeſty's Realms, muſt excite in the Heart of every honeſt Briton, the higheſt Indignation and Abhorrence.

We think it our indiſpenſible Duty, upon this Occaſion, to renew our Proteſtations of an unalterable Zeal for, and an inviolable Attachment to, your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, upon whoſe Preſervation, and Continuance to rule over us, our own Liberties, Properties, and every Thing that ought to be dear to us, as Men and Chriſtians, (next under God) do undoubtedly depend. And we do moſt humbly and heartily aſſure your Majeſty, that at this, and all Times of Danger, we are and ſhall be ready to riſque, and even ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, for the Defence and Maintenance of your Majeſty's Royal Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in theſe Realms as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforeſaid, this 19th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord Chriſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, and other the principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved otherwiſe Launceſton in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, on your happy and ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton.

The Attempt made on your Majeſty's Dominions, by the Son of a popiſh Pretender, cannot be looked on, but with the utmoſt Deteſtation by us, and all others who have a juſt Senſe of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

And we take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready and willing to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, in the Defence and Preſervation of your Royal Perſon and Family, and in Oppoſition to all popiſh Pretenders, and every other Enemy to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Mountford, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects of this Corporation, do moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Joy for your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival into your Britiſh Dominions, after the great Fatigue and Hazard to which your Majeſty hath, as a Common Father of your People, and for the Welfare and Good of Mankind, expoſed your ſacred Perſon.

We beg likewiſe to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Arms in America, in in the Reduction of Cape Breton, which cannot but be of the greateſt Conſequence to the Trade and Commerce of this Nation: And at the ſame Time to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring and inſolent Attempts made by ſome of your diſobedient and rebellious Subjects in North Britain, encouraged by the Grand Diſturber of Europe, in Favour of an abjured and popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms. And we do ſincerely and unanimouſly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will at this critical Juncture, and at all Times, and upon all Occaſions, exert the utmoſt of our Abilities, and contribute whatever lies in our Power, for the Preſervation of your ſacred Perſon and Government, in Oppoſition to all Invaders.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Glouceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Selwyn, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Glouceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Glouceſter, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to tender your Majeſty our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of a Place ſo conſiderable to the Trade of this Nation, as that of Cape Breton.

The many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, make it difficult to conceive that any Perſons ſhould be found wicked and hardy enough to diſturb it. It is therefore with the higheſt Indignation and Reſentment, that we obſerve an unnatural Rebellion fomented and carried on in your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we own ourſelves bound by the ſacred Ties of Allegiance and Duty, by every Principle that is virtuous and laudable in Man, to oppoſe the audacious Attempts of your Enemies, and to vindicate and defend your Majeſty's juſt Right and Title to the Crown (as by Law eſtabliſhed) at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes.

Given under our Common Seal, this 23d Day of September 1745.

London, September 26, 1745.

WE the under-ſign'd Merchants and others, being ſenſible how neceſſary the Preſervation of Publick Credit is at this Time, do hereby declare, that we will not refuſe to receive Bank Notes in Payment of any Sum of Money to be paid to us; and we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to make all our Payments in the ſame Manner.
